Celine majdalany

Lebanese national | based in Beirut
+961 71 901 984 | majdalanyceline@gmail.com

Experienced English language and literature teacher with over 10 years of teaching experience across Lebanon and the UAE in elementary, middle, and high school settings, as well as inclusive education and student support roles.
Holds a BA in English literature & linguistics with a teaching diploma and completed master's studies in English literature at Lebanese university. Strong academic background in English literature and language pedagogy, with expertise in curriculum delivery, classroom management, and differentiated instruction.
Experienced in multicultural and international educational environments, particularly in the UAE, with strong adaptability to diverse student backgrounds and learning systems. Passionate about student-centered learning and fostering engaging literature and language education.
Strong experience in inclusive education and student wellbeing, supporting learners with diverse academic and behavioral needs in both school and NGO contexts. Recognized for empathy, communication skills, and the ability to create supportive and inclusive learning environments.
Proficient in smart board technology and digital learning tools.

Core competencies

- English language & literature teaching
- Curriculum delivery & assessment
- Student-centered learning
- Differentiated instruction
- Classroom & behavior management
- Multicultural classroom experience
- Inclusive education & SEN support
- Student wellbeing support
- IB & French Baccalaureate exposure
- Educational technology & smart boards
- Pearson English resources
- Communication & adaptability

Mont la salle | sep 2025 – present

English language & literature teacher

- Teach English language and literature to secondary school students in line with curriculum standards
- Design engaging lessons that develop critical thinking and language skills
- Apply differentiated instruction to meet diverse learning needs
- Integrate digital tools and smart board technology into teaching
  Foster an inclusive and supportive classroom environment

Schools in the UAE & Lebanon | 2010 – 2016

Homeroom & elementary English teacher

- Taught English and core subjects in multicultural classroom environments
- Delivered student-centered lessons promoting participation and creativity
- Worked within American curriculum, IB-inspired, and French Baccalaureate educational environments
- Used Pearson English resources to support literacy development
- Supported students with diverse academic and behavioral needs
- Maintained strong communication with parents and school teams
- Adapted teaching methods to support diverse learners and encourage engagement

Beirut annunciation college | apr 2025 – jun 2025

Special Dedicated Educator

- Provided individualized academic and behavioral support for a student with learning needs
- Collaborated with teachers to adapt classroom materials and ensure inclusion
- Monitored progress and implemented targeted learning strategies
- Supported student emotional wellbeing and classroom participation

Additional professional experience

Arcenciel | 2018 – 2022

Communication officer

- Coordinated inclusion and disability awareness initiatives
- Worked with persons with disabilities in inclusive environments
- Developed educational and awareness content
- Strengthened communication, empathy, and advocacy skills

Softech | 2016 – 2018

Research & development associate (osint research)

- Conducted in-depth online research and information gathering for development projects
- Performed osint research using multiple digital sources
- Collected, verified, and organized information for reporting
- Prepared research summaries and documentation for project teams

EDUCATION

Master 1 – English literature & linguistics
Lebanese university | 2016

Ba in English literature & linguistics + teaching diploma
Lebanese university | 2009

Education management certificate | 2025

Languages

- Arabic — native
- English — fluent
- French — fluent

Open to international relocation and teaching opportunities.